Principal’s News - Mr Graeme Holmes

The school grounds and buildings were awash with cheerful primary aged children last Wednesday. Daylesford Secondary College hosted the Year 5 and 6 students from surrounding schools as part of our transition to secondary school program. Throughout the day the students had a tour of the school and participated in classes including art, wood, plastics, cooking and physical education. The benefits of a transition program such as this include; primary-aged students have the opportunity to experience a day at a secondary setting, it provides insights into secondary school curriculum, they meet a number of teachers and they have the chance to meet many students their own age from surrounding schools. Even in the short time they were here, new friendships were forged amongst many of the students.

A distinctive feature of Daylesford Secondary College is the additional support provided to students who require more time, extra instruction or further assistance. I am sure you will have noted in the newsletters the availability of support in the various learning areas. There are after school homework sessions as well as lunchtime sessions offered especially in maths, reading and science. Further, many teachers provide catch-up time during lunch so that students can work on otherwise unfinished projects, assignments or course work. It is hoped that students avail themselves of these... supports so that learning can continue and the school motto of “Aim High” can become a reality.

DSC also provides strong support for students requiring assistance in the social and emotional domains. Sue Bosch, Elaine Anderson and Andrew Netherway provide excellent support services and, coupled with the many and varied services available at “The Lounge” a comprehensive and coordinated approach to student assistance is available. Every Tuesday our welfare team provides breakfast and monthly there is a ‘Big Breakfast’ provided by a community group. This week it was the Daylesford Rotary Club which provided a sumptuous breakfast to the eager students.

Another feature last week was a presentation to the Year 7 and 8 students on internet safety. The presentation was by ACMA (Australian Communications and Media Authority), a government agency which provides advice and information on safe use of the internet. The presenter, Lesley, provided a wide range of strategies for the students to enable them to prevent becoming embedded in internet traps whilst, at the same time, affirming the value of the medium when used sensibly. The Year 7 & 8 students listened attentively to the presentation and I am sure they gained clear insights into how they can ensure safe use of the internet. The presentation linked in well with our eSmart and internet safety strategies.

LOTE

A warm welcome to Angela Lella, our new Language Assistant. Angela has joined the Languages KLA and will be with us until the end of the school year. Angela completed her studies in Rome and has spent time working and studying in Egypt and Ireland before coming to Australia. She speaks Italian, French and Arabic and she is currently working on creating a book for foreigners to be able to speak Arabic in everyday life. Angela is a great asset for our Language students as she brings her Italian speaking skills and knowledge of modern Italian culture to our staff and students. We wish her every success here at Daylesford Secondary College.

We appreciate your time and awesome effort in supporting our Breakfast Program. A great start to a wet and foggy morning.

IS ORAL HEALTH A PATHWAY TO DENTISTRY AT MELBOURNE? The Bachelor of Oral Health does NOT qualify students as dentists and is NOT a pathway to the Doctor of Dental Surgery at the University of Melbourne. It is a 3-year degree with four main components: clinical and preventative dentistry, dental and health sciences, social sciences and health promotion, and vocational clinical practice. Oral health allows graduates to practice as an oral health therapist, a dental hygienist or a dental therapist. Info: www.dent.unimelb.edu.au. For information about pathways to the Doctor of Dental Surgery see: www.coursesearch.unimelb.edu.au/pathways/2-dentistry.

WHAT CAN I DO WITH A PUBLIC HEALTH AND HEALTH PROMOTION DEGREE? Public health and health promotion combine a range of activities directed at improving the health of people in the population. Some well-known activities include those run by organisations such as SunSmart, TAC, and QUIT. Public health seeks to understand and act on the social and environmental factors that cause poor health, with the factors that create and sustain good health. Those suited to this occupation have good communication and negotiation skills, can relate to people from different backgrounds and be able to work as part of a team. Graduates work for government, health agencies, community services, universities, aid organisations, and not-for-profit organisations. Suitable courses to consider are Deakin University B. Public Health and Health Promotion, La Trobe B. Health Promotion, Monash B. Health Promotion, Swinburne B. Health Science (Public and Environmental Health), and ACU B. Applied Public Health. ATARs required for these degrees range from about 55 to about 75. Pre-requisites vary from university to university.
